

LOCAL CHEATING

by Vern Tromble

According to Article Two of the United States Constitution, only State legislatures can set election laws. Using the Corona-Virus pandemic as a pretext, voting rights activists such as Stacy Abrams in Georgia persuaded State legislatures to authorize mail-in voting, although the legislatures had been warned for years that mail-in voting was highly susceptible to fraud. Entities other than State legislatures altered election laws and got away with it! Organizations other than the States printed and distributed ballots.

If mail-in voting was counted first then President Trump won the mail-in voting! Even so, President Trump was easily winning the election in all of the swing states at 10:00 PM EST on the election night of Tuesday November 3, 2020. At midnight he was leading in Georgia by 356,945 votes, Michigan by 154,188 votes, Pennsylvania by 555,189 votes and Wisconsin by 112,022 votes.

In order to win, Democrat operatives knew that they needed to focus on only a few cities like Atlanta, Detroit, Philadelphia, Milwaukee, and a few key counties in the swing states of Arizona, Georgia, Michigan, Minnesota, Nevada, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin. They printed and distributed millions of ballots. Ballots went out to people who were not registered to vote, to people who had not requested a ballot, to people who were no longer residents, to non-citizens, even to dead people.

In Georgia at 1:34 AM EST a spike of 136,154 votes for Biden to 29,114 votes for Donald Trump occurred. That is a 4 to 1 ratio.

At 6:31 AM a dump of ballots favoring Joe Biden 141,258 to only 5,986 for Donald Trump occurred in Michigan.

In Wisconsin at 3:42 AM on the morning of Wednesday, November 4, a massive dump of mail-in votes roughly coincided with a spike in votes from data theft. In a single update Joe Biden received a net gain of one-hundred thousand votes, which propelled him into the lead. Donald Trump suddenly went from leading by a lot to losing by a little.

On December 15, when all the ballots were finally counted, Joe Biden won Georgia by 11,779 votes, Michigan by 154,188 votes, Pennsylvania by 81,660 votes and Wisconsin by 20,682 votes.

County Coroner Replacement State Statute

(ii) If a vacancy occurs in a county elective office, except as provided in W.S. 18-3-524, the board of county commissioners of the county in which the vacancy occurs shall immediately notify in writing the chairman of the county central committee of the political party which the last incumbent represented at the time of his election under W.S. 22-6-120(a)(vii), or at the time of his appointment if not elected to office. The chairman shall call a meeting of the county central committee to be held not later than fifteen (15) days after he receives notice of the vacancy. At the meeting the county central committee shall select and transmit to the board of county commissioners the names of three (3) persons qualified to hold the office. Within five (5) days after receiving these three (3) names, the board of county commissioners shall fill the vacancy by appointment of one (1) of the three (3) to hold the office. If the incumbent who has vacated office did not represent a political party at the time of his election, or at the time of his appointment if not elected to office, the county commissioners shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, notice that within fifteen (15) days after publication any person qualified to hold the office may make application directly to the county commissioners for appointment to fill the vacancy. Within twenty (20) days after the publication of the vacancy in office the county commissioners shall fill the vacancy by appointment of one (1) person qualified to hold the office from those submitting applications;

Lying on a sworn affidavit is a felony punishable by prison and fine. And yet, thousands of affidavits swearing to knowledge of voting irregularities were submitted.

In a sworn affidavit one Georgia woman reported that she went to her polling place to vote only to be told that she had already voted. She was told that her mail-in ballot was returned on October 7. She told the officials that she always voted in person. She had not requested a mail-in ballot nor had she filled one out and mailed it in.

Had someone intercepted the mail-in ballot, filled it out, forged her name, and mailed it in? Perhaps the ballot was never mailed to her. Perhaps her name and address was forged on the ballot. How often did that happen? Perhaps tens of thousands of times.

In another sworn affidavit, Jessie Morgan, a subcontractor for the United States Postal Service, testified that he hauled 24 pallets of ballots from New York State to Pennsylvania. Ethan Pease, a subcontractor for the Post Office in Wisconsin testified that he observed the backdating of ballots in order to make them legal.

Few if any of these complaints were ever heard in court.

Identical ballots containing the same identification number, obviously duplicated, were counted individually. Many ballots in which only the Presidential race was marked were observed and counted. Down ballot candidates who were not as popular as the President won while the President lost.

By law, a ballot must be folded and returned in the envelope provided. Unfolded ballots turned up at counting locations and were counted. How did the ballots get to the vote counting location?

"Government is not reason; it is not eloquent; it is force. Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master. Experience has taught us that it is much easier to prevent an enemy from posting themselves than it is to dislodge them after they have got possession, and when the freedom of speech is taken away then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter."

The Declaration of Independence

In Congress, July 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America

When in the Course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. — That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security. — Such has been the patient sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Systems of Government. The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid world.

He has refused his Assent to Laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his Assent should be obtained; and when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other Laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of Representation in the Legislature, a right inestimable to them and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their Public Records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly firmness his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused for a long time, after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected, whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

He has obstructed the Administration of Justice by refusing his Assent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the Military independent of and superior to the Civil Power.

He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Assent to their Acts of pretended Legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock Trial from punishment for any Murders which they should commit on the Inhabitants of these States:

For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing Taxes on us without our Consent:

For depriving us in many cases, of the benefit of Trial by Jury:

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences:

For abolishing the free System of English Laws in a neighbouring Province, establishing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these Colonies

For taking away our Charters, abolishing our most valuable Laws and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments:

For suspending our own Legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is at this time transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already begun with circumstances of Cruelty & Perfidy scarcely paralleled in the most barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation.

He has constrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions.

In every stage of these Oppressions We have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated injury. A Prince, whose character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people.

Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our British brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legislature to extend an unwarrantable jurisdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumstances of our emigration and settlement here. We have appealed to their native justice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to disavow these usurpations, which would inevitably interrupt our connections and correspondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of justice and of consanguinity. We must, therefore, acquiesce in the necessity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the rest of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends.

We, therefore, the Representatives of the united States of America, in General Congress, Assembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of these Colonies, solemnly publish and declare, That these united Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States, that they are Absolved from all Allegiance to the British Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally dissolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, establish Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. — And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor.

RECLAIM the REPUBLIC.
RESTORE the CONSTITUTION.

So You Want to Make a Difference...

The voice of American patriots right now is deafening . . . they are rightly outraged by assaults of unprecedented boldness on our liberties.

However, talk is cheap.

Do you truly want to make a difference? Because if you do, there is a sacrifice to be made.

And that sacrifice would be a full day out of your busy schedule this coming July 17, 2021.

Wyoming Campaign for Liberty recently hosted two Intense Political Activist Training Schools in Wyoming. We had a great turnout at each of them, with a renewed commitment from many patriots who are ready to defend our Republic.

These attendees made that sacrifice and came out of the classes far better trained and prepared, ready to battle against the political establishment that loves nothing more than stealing our freedoms.

Are you ready to put your money where your mouth is?

If so, please consider attending Wyoming Campaign for Liberty's one-day grassroots Political Activist Training School on Saturday, July 17, 2021, in Riverton.

Click here to purchase your ticket.

To teach us the steps to find great political leadership success, Campaign for Liberty's own Shawn Dow -- a seasoned veteran grassroots activist and political consultant -- will be sharing his expertise in this area.

Shawn is a small business owner from Arizona and brings a wealth of political experience in campaign management, business management, and politics.

In 2009, Shawn began putting the principles he learned at a similar training event into action.

Shawn has successfully managed numerous campaigns from local races to U.S. Senate races.

He was also a State Director for Ron Paul's 2012 presidential campaign and Rand Paul's 2015 presidential campaign.

This special one-day training session will be held on Saturday, July 17, 2021, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (check-in begins at 8:30 a.m.), at the Holiday Inn Riverton – Convention Center, 900 E. Sunset Blvd., Riverton, WY.

A light lunch and snacks are covered by the modest "early-bird" ticket price of only $50. After July 10, the price is $75.

Please register for the class here.

If you feel called to turn your conviction and passion into effective political action in any level of government, please be sure to sign up to attend this one-day intense training session.

Shawn Dow is also THE premiere activist fighting to remove red light ticket cameras across the country, winning 100 percent of elections involving these automatic ticketing machines. He's also written legislation banning the cameras that has ultimately been passed into law in over 15 states.

Ending these contracts has saved Americans an estimated one billion dollars per year.

As an experienced instructor, Shawn is a trusted consultant and advisor both on and off the activist and campaign trail.

He is considered by many to be the most inspiring of Campaign for Liberty's trainers and is universally recognized as the most energetic.

At this school, you will learn how to create meaningful change and what you must do to be respected and feared by politicians.

You must be at this school!

This intense training covers:

The Real Nature of Politics -- why action from the grassroots is required to effect change;

The Biggest Lie in Politics -- and how the political class uses your convictions against you;

How to Work Effectively at the Capitol -- getting a bill sponsor and roll call vote despite the leadership;

How to Build a Group -- putting pressure on legislators.

This class will teach you how to turn your passion into action. I sincerely hope you can attend this training on Saturday, July 17, 2021, in Riverton.

You owe it to your ideas and principles to learn how to become the most effective activist you can be.
